

Introduction to Construction
Craft Worker LEVEL 1

March 15 - May, 30 2021

Monday to Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Salmon Arm, BC

This fully funded introduction to Construction Craft Worker Level 1 course prepares participants to perform skilled labour work on a wide variety of construction projects. The program covers a versatile base of skills and knowledge including:

- Worksite safety
- Tools and use of tools
- Blueprint reading
- Form setting
- Fall protection, traffic control and scaffolding

- Demolition
- Concrete
- Site and groundwork
- Excavation and shoring
- Pipeline and utilities

tru.ca/trades/programs

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

A person of Aboriginal decent or self identifying

Who is unemployed or in precarious employment, and faces one or more barriers to employment;

Who is in good health

Is living in British Columbia;

If needing living support, applicants will need to apply with ISETS formerly known as ASETS

Is not a full-time student; and

Is not actively participating in, and receiving financial supports from, another provincially or federally funded labour market program.

FIND YOUR TRU

At TRU, you will be surrounded by stunning panoramic views of rivers, lakes and mountains. Located in the heart of Kamloops, our sprawling campus is close to shopping, entertainment and a spectacular outdoor lifestyle. On campus, enjoy small classes and find it easy to be engaged with your professors and classmates. Learn by doing and take your passion beyond the classroom—whether through co-op placements, applied research, volunteering in the community or studying abroad. Find your path. Find your passion. Find your TRU.

WHO CAN I TALK TO?

Contact your local Indigenous Skills and Employment Training office to find out if you are eligible for a training supplement.

Contact:

Delair Ignatius, Program Coordinator

Tel 250-679-2963 Ext. 219

Email programcoordinator@nibeducation.com

OR

Charissa Buffalo, Programs Assistant

programassistant@nibeducation.com

250-679-2963 ext. 239

Thompson Rivers University is on the traditional lands of the Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc (Kamloops campus) and the T'exelc (Williams Lake campus) within Secwépemc'ulucw, the traditional and unceded territory of the Secwépemc people. Our region also extends into the territories of the Stat'imc, Nlaka'pamux, Nuxalk, Tsilhqot'in, Dakelh, and Métis peoples.

tru.ca/trades

TT20002

Canada

Funding provided by the Government of Canada through the Canada-British Columbia Workforce Development Agreement

ita